We Are A Biological Technology Company

We produce and sell tissue culture liners on a wholesale level.

Our team of dedicated professionals works hard to ensure we produce quality plants.

Using a collection of techniques known as tissue-culture, we replicate plants in a sterile environment and sell wholesale upon maturity in cell-pack liners*.

Tissue culture allows the growth of nearly a limitless number of a specific plant. This is particularly useful for mass-production of plants with curative or desired properties.

We are wholesale only; we are not a retail nursery. You must be qualified as "tax exempt."

*72-cell pack liners (unless otherwise noted)
